CHEROKEE OLDE TIME FAIR APPRECIATION

Let me begin by recognizing and expressing appreciation for some very important people. No, I'm not talking about someone in Washington or some famous celebrity out of Hollywood. I am talking about our neighbors and friends who volunteered to help with the Cherokee Olde Time Fair. Special recognition must be given to each Fair Co-Chair. You see them zipping about on golf carts during the fair but their volunteer effort begins many months earlier. This year's fair was Co-Chaired by Carol Hensley, Jerry Lyndrup, Elaine Richards, and Terry Weiss. Additionally, Gail Henkel and Carolyn Hummell organize the selection and placement of arts and crafts. All finance matters were managed by our treasurer Polly Anderson. Thank you one and all for another successful fair.

COCKTAIL PARTY

Special thanks to Dr. L. G. & Patti Perleberg-Owen for hosting the annual Cherokee Triangle Association cocktail party. This evening of acquainting oneself with neighbors and friends is an event we look forward to each year. The Owen's home was beautifully decorated and enjoyed by all.

Trustee, David Rateau, is the Chairman of this event and is always open to ideas and homes for next year's gathering.

SUMMER CONCERTS

Peter McHugh has 'scored' yet another fabulous summer concert series calling back some favorite bands and booking new talent. In August we will try something different by having open youth band night. The summer concerts, sponsored by CTA from the proceeds of the fair and your membership dues, are free and open to the public. Bring your lawn chairs and enjoy the music.

NEW TRUSTEE

The Board of Trustees has elected Roy Jolly to complete the unexpired term of Patricia Bailey. Helping the Association in such areas as the fair, membership development, and the summer concerts, we look forward to Roy joining our board.

THE NEW NEIGHBORHOOD LIBRARY

By Anne Axton

We will soon have a new Neighborhood Library serving not only the Highlands area but also Tyler Park, Deer Park, Bonnycastle, Shelby Park, Germantown-Paristown, Belknap, Phoenix Hill, Butchertown, and Douglas Loop neighborhoods.

Its role will be to provide general information services for its surrounding service area, popular reading, homework assistance, and children's and adult programs on a regular schedule. The facility will comprise between 5,000 and 10,000 square feet and will open with between 5,000 and 50,000 volumes.

Staffing the library will be two professional librarians, five paraprofessional/clerical people, and other support staff. The hours of operation will be better than before: fifty-one hours per week, tentatively scheduled between 10:00 a.m. and 8:00 p.m. three days a week and 10:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. three days a week.

The Library and City are now investigating the lease of space in the Mid-City Mall to house this new facility, and when negotiations are complete Head Librarian Harriett Henderson and Keith Hanley, President of the Library Foundation, will meet with leaders of the above neighborhood organizations. Soon thereafter we will begin to organize a new Friends group to support this new Neighborhood Library.

Meanwhile, Cherokee Triangle residents can begin to organize fund-raising efforts to help benefit it. We welcome everyone's help and cooperation. First, we'll form a committee to organize fund-raising projects, then we'll need good ideas and good people to help implement them.

Some projects have already been suggested. Shall we have a yard sale at the tot-lot? How about having a tea and/or garden party for forty people at so much per person? Do you have a pool? Then sell a swimming party! Look over your house: what sort of entertainment can you provide at your home? For how many guests? There must be many more money-making ideas out there for the library, just waiting to hatch, and we need everyone in the Triangle thinking.

If you would like to serve on the committee, call with an idea, or offer your home for an event, give Anne Axton a ring at 451-4074. Don't delay! Do it this week! Working together and working hard, we can have the very best Neighborhood Library created under the city-county five-year plan.

Note that with the move, the old Highland Branch Library will be no more, and our new designation will be Neighborhood Library.

1993 SPRING COCKTAIL PARTY A HUGE SUCCESS

By David Rateau

This year's Cherokee Triangle Spring Cocktail Party was held at the home of Dr. L. G. Owen and Patti Perleberg-Owen.

A record number of people came to enjoy hors d'oeuvres and an open bar in the new Great Room added by the Owens last year. The beautifully decorated Great Room off of their newly remodeled Kitchen featured architectural columns, hardwood floors and lots of windows. Several flower arrangements donated by Schultz's Florist added a touch of elegance to the affair.

Several area restaurants donated samplings of their specialties for the hors d'oeuvre tables. Two separate

Statement of Purpose

The mission of the Cherokee Triangle Newsletter is:
1. To keep members informed of current issues directly affecting the Cherokee Triangle neighborhood, including residents' responsibilities and benefits by reason of living in a historic preservation neighborhood.
2. To inform members of the activities and identities of the Board of Trustees and to answer residents' questions about those activities and respond to suggestions of residents.
3. To provide a medium for news and views of Triangle residents.
4. To provide information about opportunities to serve the neighborhood as volunteers, and information about opportunities for residents to meet their neighbors.

On Monday evening, May 17, the CTA Board of Directors received an update of the preliminary plans for improvements to Cherokee Park. Members of CTA's Parks and Beautification Committee were also present. Susan Rademacher, Executive Director of the Louisville Olmsted Parks Conservancy, made the presentation. The Conservancy is a non-profit organization that is overseeing preparation of the master plan for Louisville's three major Olmsted parks and five parks. The plans for Cherokee, which are preliminary in nature, include the protection of environmentally sensitive areas, stream bed restoration, construction of a partially new pathway system, renovation of a number of park facilities, and changes in the traffic circulation system.

Although the audience was impressed with the preliminary recommendations, a number of reservations were also expressed. Many of the questions focused on constructing a formal mountain bike trail. Questions relating to the mountain bike trail included: the appropriateness of mountain bike trails in an historic 'urban' park, will the de facto sanctioning of off-road bicycling in the park lead to increased usage, how will the track be maintained and managed, and what will be Metro Park's response to problems and to requests for specific facilities for other new sports? Other issues that were raised include: the lack of screening of the parking lots near the golf course club house, border painting or screening, and entryway plantings.

The preliminary plans will be reviewed and refined by the Olmsted Stewardship council - a citizens group on which CTA is represented - as well as the boards of Metro Parks and the Olmsted Conservancy. Public hearings on the plans will be held sometime in June, with final approval by the Louisville Board of Aldermen after the plans are finalized. CTA's Park's and Beautification Committee will have ongoing involvement as the plans are refined. The full board of CTA will take a position on the plans at some point in the future.

LOOKING BACK

By Polly Anderson

Recently Ed Hessell provided us with several copies of "The Cherokee Phoenix," Volume I, No. 3, undated, published in the fall of 1970. This single-sheet two-page newsletter of the Cherokee Association reminds us of the more things change the more they remain the same. That year, hot upon the heels of the major news story, "Big Clean Up Scores Clean Sweep," the next story highlighted the new trash and discards date. That clean sweep netted 405 tons of litter and trash apparently hauled off by the departments of sanitation and works. Gary Bates, still an Association member, chaired the event. Boy Scout Troop 19 of the Highland Methodist Church helped with the sale of new garbage cans.

Then, as now, our neighborhood took the lead in the city-wide cleanup effort.

That year's Green Thumb Trade Day (forerunner of the Cherokee Triangle Olde Time Fair) was in early May. Winners of the garden tour were Mrs. Louis Vaughn on Ransdell and Mrs. David Brown on Bassett.

Concerns then were volunteer recruitment and membership. The annual fee was $2.00. Meetings were held in the Highland Baptist Fellowship Hall. Even as in this issue, the perimeter of the Triangle was defined for those residents who asked, "Do I live in the Triangle?"

If you would like a nostalgic copy of the "Cherokee Phoenix," drop us a card (P. O. Box 4306, 40204) and we'll send you one, or if you have any old issues, send them to us.

A Message from City Arborist Alan Bishop

The city's 3rd Ward is rich with stately mature shade trees that line neighborhood streets. The city's Urban Planning and Forestry Program offers citizens the opportunity to preserve and enhance this natural "green" resource. Upon your request, an appropriate tree will be planted in the public right-of-way fronting your property.

There is no charge for this service, but we do request that basic tree maintenance (watering, weeding and mulching) be provided by the requesting property owner. This is a deal that you can't refuse, and your stewardship will ensure a healthy and long-lived tree. To put in a request for a tree, call 574-3333.

bars kept the drinks coming to all the guests who were busy meeting new neighbors and talking to old friends.

If you did not attend this years cocktail party you will want to look for your invitation next spring.

Special thanks to the following restaurants for their generous donations: Bristol Bar & Grill, Burger's, Deitrich's In The Crescent, Jack Fry's, La Peche, Almeda Bar & Grill, Rib Tavern, and K.T.'s.

I would like to thank Brown-Forman Corp. for being the major corporate sponsor. Most of all I would like to thank Dr. L. G. Owen and Pattie Perleberg-Owen for their gratuitous hospitality.

ROCK SOLID IN REAL ESTATE
By Tony Lindauer

Several weeks ago a group of Cherokee Triangle residents walked the alleys in our neighborhood. This group (aka - The Alley Committee) is interested in keeping the back side of our lovely 'hood as clean and nice as the front. As we walked along making general observations about the junk, piles of brush and other objects of neglect we all agreed that 'you are what you throw away.' As you read this you might be wondering what kind of weirdos would walk around in the alleys looking at garbage. The short answer is - it takes all kinds.

Regardless, the intent of this little article is to let you know that there is a Triangle Association Committee that does care about the conditions in our alleys.

For the most part our alleys are in good shape, especially in the more interior, permanent residential areas of the Triangle. However, the alleys along the border of the neighborhood are neglected and generally messy. There are several reasons for this - more apartment dwellers, more traffic, and more business especially along Bardstown Road.

Alleys are a unique city possession - part of the fabric and character of why we choose to live here. Please help keep the street behind your house or apartment clean. Project Pickup comes around 4 times a year to collect bulky items such as furniture, mattresses, appliances and up to 4 tires. The date for the next pickup is June 28th. Please cooperate and place only those collectible items out at that time and not before or after. Building or remodeling materials are the owner's responsibility to have removed, and if left out for any length of time are subject to a fine. If caretaking of your alley becomes too much of a burden, you can always move to Hurstbourne.

The Alley Committee is looking for volunteers to serve as block coordinators. Our goal is to have a coordinator for every block in the Triangle.

Schuster Building To Be Renovated

The Schuster Building, constructed in 1927, is an excellent example of the Colonial Revival architectural style. The commercial space in the building consists of approximately 8,000 square feet on the second floor. Commitments for this space have already been secured. Partlow & Steibling, Inc. (an advertising agency) will occupy the entire second floor.

The building's retail space, which consists of approximately 7,400 square feet on the ground floor, will be available for lease to businesses that fit both the building's character and that of the business and residential corridor. Construction will start very soon and a completion date is set for November, 1993. The Schuster Partners look forward to restoring this beautiful, historic building back to its original grandeur.

THE 1993 FAIR - A Rainy Success

By Jerry Lyndrup

By ten o'clock Saturday morning, opening hour for the annual Olde Time Cherokee Triangle Fair, the rain was lessening, the children had paraded through it fearlessly on a variety of wheels, the exhibitors were all set up and good food smells were in the air.

A high-level decision was made to wait for the rain to stop at 11:00, when a short dedication of the refurbished Castelman statue was planned. Obligingly, at 11:30, the rain stopped, the folks from Louisville and Lexington and the Saddlebred Association, the Rock Creek Riding Club and Aldermon Owen and the Trustees assembled and the statue was duly dedicated.

Everything cooperated from then on throughout the day. No more rain, even some sun, and the crowds were enthusiastic about the exhibits, the new food court, the music. New this year were Rib Tavern's great ribs, chicken, and salads. The brats booth was busy too, and the others—drinks, popcorn, beer, pretzels, nachos, home-baked goods and lemonade (this year augmented with hot coffee and hot chocolate, just in case). We missed Jeff Monsky and his elephant ears and pork chop sandwiches. He has been ill and we wish him well. He has been a tradition at the FAIR for many years. It was the almond lady's last year too. She is returning to Germany. She told us this was her favoriteFair.

New items in the Triangle booth were folding chairs, shopping bags, embossed napkins, etched old-fashioned glasses, and there were new sweatshirts and so.

The exhibitors were selling, and praising the crowds. The crowds were spending money and praising the quality of the exhibits. In fact, the day went so well, that another high-level decision kept the beer booth and one or two others open until 7:00, while the band played on.

Sunday was another story. It rained, gently, occasionally less gently, but on and off all day. Very little sun. However, there were strollers all day, and to everyone's surprise it was another successful Fair day, for visitors and exhibitors as well.

All the neighborhood volunteers who came in shifts and worked the Triangle booths had a ball. The only disappointment was not being able to keep the children's art tables busy. We missed the potter too, who couldn't work in the rain. But he will be back next year.

Our special thanks to the Fair Co-chairs, Booth Chairs, Activities Chairs, and hundreds of volunteers. At the time of printing we had not received the names of all the volunteers—if your name is not on the list, be assured you were appreciated. Thanks also to the Boy Scouts and to Phoenix Hill Tavern, and to numerous city and county departments, including Parks, Sanitation, fire and police.

Special thanks to the neighbors who gave up their parking spaces and tolerated the interruption to their normal peace and quiet.

THANK YOU ALL — IT WAS A GREAT FAIR!
